WHAT AMERICANS SHOULD KNOW

Americans are a good lot, averaging them up.

They are progressive, friendly, charitable. But being human they have faults, and it is not a breach of patriotism to editorialize a bit about the faults of Americans, because criticism occasionally improves people. One of the faults of Americans is the strutting they do while abroad. Americans should realize that their strutting while they are in foreign countries jeopardizes the best interests of the United States. Indeed, we go so far to remark that strutting Americans abroad undo the work of the government in the government's efforts to establish friendly relations in foreign countries.

An American is visiting in France. He has noticed there that the American tourists are very much disliked by the French people on account of the strutting aforesaid mentioned.

Recently that man was talking to an American lady who lives in France, she having married a Frenchman. That lady told him that Americans are not popular in France, and she gave the following reasons, which should be seriously considered by all of us:

1. Americans, while abroad, criticize too freely.

2. They refuse to adapt themselves to the customs of the countries they visit.

3. They do not try to appreciate the inherent differences between Americans and the folks of the countries they are touring.

4. They make fun of the food and manner of preparing food in the foreign countries while they visit.

5. And Americans traveling in foreign countries are forever making fun of money values over there, and are always assuming that they have real money to "throw away"; and they wave the American flag in everybody's face while abroad.

Summing it up, Americans abroad are too bold, brazen and conceited, and it is only natural that the natives cordially despise them. Many Americans, while in foreign countries, by every word and every gesture make the natives disgusted with them, and relations between governments become strained as a result of the overbearing attitude of the individuals.

We hope the Maine folks who go abroad will be courteous and agreeable, even when foreign customs interfere somewhat with their convenience.

Americans are not the only pebbles on the beach and should realize as much.

BOLSTER'S MILLS
Skillings Enjoyed Motor Trip—Scribner Taking Vacation—Grange Program.

Mr. and Mrs. George Skillings have recently taken a most delightful auto trip in Vermont, around Lake Champlain and the Adirondacks and many other places of note.

Big attendance as usual from this way to attend the World's Fair, Saturday.

Mrs. Mabel Jilson has gone away for several weeks.

Queenie Rowe has recently been in Lewiston, shopping, and visited at Mechanic Falls, also.

Jason Scribner is taking a vacation, pleasure and business combined.

Alma Rowe, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Norton Jilson spent Sunday on a trip to visit the big dam at Bingham.

Walter Chute and family also were in the party.

An old fashioned grange meeting was held Saturday night. It also being Mrs. Lyman Shedd's seventy-eighth birthday.

Some of the sisters caused a "real" celebration for her. She was presented with three birthday cakes, two of which were prettily decorated in fancy frosting and bore candles. These were made by Mrs. Dresser and Mrs. Gay. The third had the 78 candles. This one was cut and eaten along with popcorn, candy and apples, after which the following entertainment was given:

Singing, "Disie Land".....Grange
Reading.....Mrs. Lord
Instrumental Music, Sisters Gay and Weston
Reading.....Josephine Caswell
Pastime Tableaux Sketch.....

Murphy-Grover
A pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Grover, 299 Brackett street, Portland, Monday, Oct. 7, at 8 p. m., when George C. Murphy of Portland and Miss Myrtle M. Grover of Bolster's Mills were united in marriage.

The officiating clergyman was Rev. Jas. R. Hinks of South Portland, who performed the double ring service. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Howard Grover. Holman Murphy of 17 Tyler street, South Paris, was best man and Mrs. Betty Frost Murphy, same address, was the bridesmaid. The bride wore pink silk crepe and carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds. Mrs. Murphy, her attendant wore yellow silk and carried yellow roses.

The ceremony was performed in the parlor under a canopy of pink and white, which had been arranged by Mrs. Howard Grover, who was in charge of the house decorations.

The groom presented a string of pearls to the bride and a silver cigarette case to the best man. A gold pen and pencil combination was the bride's gift to the bridesmaid.

A reception followed and in the receiving line were the bride and groom, John Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. Holman Murphy and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Grover. Dainty refreshments were in charge of Mrs. Howard Grover. Music during the reception was provided by Mrs. Cowie and Mrs. Morissette.

Among the guests were Rev. R. G. Clapp of South Paris, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Morissette of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Holman Murphy and Mrs. Ray Frost of South Paris.

After a wedding trip the newlyweds will be at home at 299 Brackett street, Portland.

Mrs. Murphy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Grover of Bolster's Mills. For some time she was employed in the shoe factories in Norway, but of late has been a waitress in Portland.

Mr. Murphy is the son of John Murphy of South Portland, formerly of Sebago. He attended the Portland schools and is completing his second enlistment in the United States army. After his discharge from the service he will locate in Portland.

Mrs. Walter Lewis and children as guests, went around the mountains, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Stevens spent last week in Brockton, Mass. and attended the Brockton Fair.

Lillian Smith is working for Mrs. Elmer Walker.

Several from here attended the Fair at North Waterford, Saturday and reported a large crowd.

Mrs. Barbara Hutchins and daughter, Helen have returned to their home here.

Mr. Henry Andrews has a new electric radio.

Stopped Child's Cough
Adamson's Balsam, that wonderfully reliable cough stopper, stopped this boy's coughing spells in two doses.

As quick as it touches the inflamed throat, it relieves soreness. Quickly relaxes throat muscles and easily expels phlegm. Being free from irritation and sticky, infected phlegm—coughing stops.

Other ingredients attack the germs at seat of trouble and in a day or two all danger is gone.

Because Adamson's Balsam works so quickly and surely—it's the favorite all over New England. Contains no dope, harmful drugs, or chloroform. Try it for colds, sore throat, bronchitis or pleurisy cough. 50c and $1. At all drug stores.
